

Yes, (leaving Persia/Iran) was painful – and I have so many loving memories of and deep affection for Persia. But we have a heartfelt belief that wherever we are in the world, wherever our hearts are, is home. And Dubbo is home. This is my home. I have the same feeling, the same respect, the same desire to serve this place as I did for Iran.'

Farzan and Nasser Sedghi