

Zamzam Company of Kermanshah

In this document dated Shahrivar 1360 [September 1981], Seyyed Reza Lavasani, the appointed judge of the Islamic Revolutionary Court of Kermanshah, orders Zamzam Company of Kermanshah to dismiss Bahá'í employees and staff, unless they repent and introduce themselves as having Faith in the Twelver Shi'a sect of Islam and publish this testimony with photographs in Iranian newspapers with wide circulation. The company is given less than 3 weeks to implement the order.

دادگاه انقلاب اسلامی
کرمانشاه
بسمه تعالی
شماره ثبت: ۶۰/۶/۶۰

از دادگاه انقلاب اسلامی کرمانشاه
شرکت زمزم کرمانشاه

دو واقع کارمندان و کارکنان بیانی در آن شرکت بدینگونه ایلاغ میسود
در صورتیکه کارمندان و کارکنان شاق بیانی حاکمیه تبه بترند در نورسند
پوستگی خود بنویسند که تدین بدین اسلام و بعد از آن تبه انی شوی میباشند
و همین واقع زاد روزنامه های شهر را انتشارا کس جابه و حاکم بنایند میباشند
بلا ریچد در آن شرکت ادانه دهند در زمان بدین صورت میباشند اشراج بنویسند
وزارت امور خارجه در ۶۰ میباشند

قاصی شوع دادگاه انقلاب اسلامی کرمانشاه
سیدرضا الواسانی

Num. 1, Mobile	In His Name the Exalted	Islamic Revolutionary Court of
Date: 1 Sep 1981	Islamic Republic of Iran	Kermanshah

From: Islamic Revolutionary Court of Kermanshah

To: Zamzam Company of Kermanshah

Concerning the Bahá'í workers and employees in that company, it is hereby declared, that if the Bahá'í workers and employees are willing to repent, and record in their personnel files that they are followers of Islam and the Twelver Shiite sect, and publish and reflect this fact in the widely circulated newspapers of the country along with their photograph, they can continue their employment in that company. Otherwise, they must be expelled. The deadline is end of Shahrivar of 1360 (22 September 1981).

Shari'a Judge of the Islamic Revolutionary Court of Kermanshah,

Siyid Reza Lavasani

[Source: Sarkoob va Koshtar Degar-andishan-e-Mazhabi dar Iran, Vol. 2, P.45, Document Number 5.]